

Texas Property Code, Section 209.005

Describes in detail how an HOA can and must communicate and make available reports, records and documents to members.

(e) "Records, reports and documents must be made available to members upon written request"

(g) " if a request is provided in writing, the association will deliver the request within 15 working days"

(h) " A property owner association may provide records, reports and documents under this section in hard copy, electronic, or other format reasonably available to the association"